

HISTORIC HANDLOOM CONFERENCE

3 TREADLE LOOMS AND THE QUAKER WEAVERS SALEM, INDIANA

October 5 – 6, 2005

Stevens Memorial Museum, 307 East Market Street, Salem, Indiana

TOPICS

- History of 3-shaft weaving
- History of Quaker weavers in Salem
- Research on Welsh weavers
- Dendrochronology (wood identification and dating)

DEMONSTRATION

- How to tie up a 3-shaft loom
- Patterns, yarns, and setts for 3-shaft weaving
- Weave on the Lindley Family Loom, Sara Winslow Morris Loom, and Charity Gibbons Morris Loom

TOURS

- Pioneer Village
- The oldest Quaker Meeting House in Indiana

PRESENTERS

- Br. Kim Malloy, St. Meinrad, IN
- Eugene Trueblood, Salem, IN
- Sharon Stovall, Lawrenceville, IL
- Alan Raistrick, Chinnor, England
- Dr. Darrin Rubino, Hanover College, IN
- Cindy Ruesink, Madison, IN

Date: October 5 – 6, 2005

Time: Oct. 5, 9:00 am - 8:00 pm

Oct. 6, 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Cost: $70.00, includes registration and 3 meals

To register send your name, address, phone and/or email, and full payment (check payable to Cindy Ruesink) to: Cindy Ruesink, PO Box 317, Madison, IN 47250

Please make you own room reservation

- Salem B&B's
 - Lanning House, Jeanette Hart, Innkeeper, 206 E. Poplar St., Salem, IN 47167, Phone: 812-883-3484
 - Cottage at West Point, Donald & Helen Morgan, Innkeepers, 5614 E. Marris Road, Salem, IN 47167, Toll free: 866-883-4613
- Salem Motel
 - Salem Motel, Highway 56 & 60 West, Salem, Toll free: 888-266-2094

